

Self-Sufficiency Standard for Colorado

Empowered Thinking: A YWCA Discussion Series

The Self-Sufficiency Standard for Colorado 2015 analyzes how much income Colorado families in each of the state's 64 counties must realistically earn to meet basic needs without public or private assistance.

Tuesday, October 20th, 2015

6:30pm-8:00pm

YWCA of Boulder County 2222 14th St. Boulder, CO 80302

Join the YWCA, The Women's Foundation of Colorado, and the Colorado Center on Law and Policy for a briefing session on the critical research findings and how they are being leveraged to create systemic change that will advance economic opportunities for all women and girls in Colorado. Refreshments will be served.

Speakers include:

Aubrey Hasvold

Family Economic Security Program Associate at Colorado Center on Law and Policy

Louise Mryland

Vice President of Community Initiatives and Investments at
The Women's Foundation

Josie Heath

President of The Community Foundation